

Block IV: Are we fit for purpose? Our tools and instruments

Thursday 2 June 2016, 09:45-11:15

Workshop description
Title	Gender & Conflict Analysis
Focus and Key questions	A thorough Gender Analysis is the basis for any gender-responsive intervention as is a Conflict Analysis for working in fragile contexts. But how Gender & Conflict Analysis come together, and how can we integrate the main tools and questions? In this workshop we will review our tools and instruments from a gender perspective and explore how we can integrate the gender and the conflict lens. Key questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• What are elements of a good gender & conflict analysis?• How can we engender the CSPM toolbox?
Examples and resource persons from the field (tbc)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• DRC (Aziza Aziz Suleyman)• Afghanistan (Melanie Büsch)• Jordan (Raeda Nimrat)• Simone Droz (on CSPM tools/ CSPM Assessment Benin), tbc
Responsible / Resource person(s)	Ursula Keller, Simone Droz (CHR, tbc)
Workshop procedure	We will share experiences on doing CSPM, gender and conflict analysis – or what are open questions and challenges in doing so. We look at the CSPM tools, in particular the MERV, actors mapping and conflict /context analysis and identify gaps and opportunities with regard to gender.
Final result	We have identified the key elements of a gender & conflict analysis and come up with suggestions on how to engender the CSPM toolbox.
