

WTI 'Talking Gender, Equality and Diversity' Lecture Series

Gender Issues in Transnational Migration Studies: Recent Developments and Future Prospects

Dr Asuncion Fresnoza-Flot
Research Associate FNRS, ULB University

Abstract

What are some of the different analytical lenses adopted to inquire the gender-migration nexus? Examining the literature and scholarly research engines, Dr Fresnoza-Flot aims to uncover that women are more visible than their male counterparts, whereas the LGBTI migrants are attracting increasing attention. As migratory movements have become diversified and complex through time, it is becoming increasingly pressing to understand our perspectives and approaches.

Biography of the speaker

Asuncion Fresnoza-Flot is tenured associate researcher of the Belgian National Fund for Scientific Research (FRS-FNRS) and senior lecturer (maîtresse d'enseignement) at the Université libre de Bruxelles in Belgium. Her on-going research programme focuses on the contextual mobility of Belgian-Asian couples in Belgium and in Asia.

Her recent works include the edited special issue "Transnational perspectives on intersecting experiences: gender, social class and generation among Southeast Asian migrants and their families" (with K. Shinozaki, 2017) of the Journal of Ethnic and Migrations Studies and the volume "International marriages and marital citizenship. Southeast Asian women on the move" (with G. Ricordeau, 2017).

When, Where

Wednesday
19 February 2020
12:30-13:30
Anna Nussbaum Auditorium, World Trade Institute
Hallerstrasse 6, 3012 Bern

Further Information:

Participation is open to the public and free of charge.
Registration is not necessary.
If you need childcare services during the events, please contact
Ms Sophia Thompson (sophia.thompson@wti.org).