

Tender for the implementation of the project 'From Education to Employment (E2E): Youth Skills Development and Private-Public Partnership in Serbia'

Swiss Government will provide support to increase youth employability in Serbia by testing and applying new dual vocational education models with the engagement of public and business sector. Swiss Cooperation Office Belgrade announces invitation to tender for the mandate 'From Education to Employment (E2E): Youth Skills Development and Private-Public Partnership in Serbia'.

Interested and qualified bidders may obtain more information at www.simap.ch . To access the tender advertisement follow the link 'invitations to tender' in the left column. Then type 'Serbia From Education to Employment' in the search function box and the invitation to the tender will appear.

SIMAP is the only source of information and no telephone calls, e-mail or other enquiries to the Swiss Cooperation Office will be allowed.