Gender-based Violence

Good practices of SGBV projects on gender transformation with community based approaches

Crosscutting question

What are key aspect, issues, learnings related to the sharing of responsibilities and (re-)distribution of unpaid care work?

How is addressing women's high share of unpaid care work an enabler/disabler for transformative change?

1. Identify the space for men's responsibility enlarge the space.
 - a. Start working with youth
 - b. Promote gender equal laws, e.g. paternal leave to get men engaged into care work.
 - c. Challenge socially-constructed concepts of masculinity

2. Identify context specific entry points
 - a. Strengthen / Empower men who are willing to change & engage in collective action.
 - b. Work with those who inform opinions & have gone through transformation
 - c. Reflect on change which is already happening (and what men want for the future)

3. Enabler: raise awareness about a joint agenda for the community
 - a. Change in the relationship transforms the whole family & will have a long-term deep change for next generations.
