RAS Policies – Evidence and Practice

Findings

- Evidence is a good start - but without context not relevant
- Policy makers are not monolithic
- Communication strategy
  - Seeing once is better than hearing one hundred times
- Alliances need to be looked after (other ministries, institutions)
- RAS still needs to work on its strategy for lobbying and advocacy
- Patience is needed when trying to influence policy –since this is a process

RAS Policies – Evidence and Practice

- Further promote south-south exchange
- Financial partnerships
  - How can a RAS forum help a ‘donor’ to fulfill his goals – find common goals
- Private sector is again missing.

RAS Policies – Evidence and Practice

- 5 Years GFRAS: Good progress in promoting and strengthening regional fora/networks
- More can be done in helping them exchange amongst each other
